

Varietals:

Colombian Supremo - Good acidity, balanced with medium body, and full aroma. Superbly rich, this excellent "self drinker" can sometimes have a nutty taste.

$10.00 lb.

Decaf Colombian Supremo - "Self drinker" still, but hold the caffeine!

$10.00 lb.

Costa Rican Tarrazu French Roast - Has a great aroma when brewed. Upon first taste, you will note the honey nut essence, all balanced by a silky taste and excellent mouthfeel.

$11.50 lb.

French Roast - Rich, dark, smooth. Heavily bodied with a balanced mouthfeel. Reg. Or Decaf.

$11.00 lb.

Ethiopian Limu - This unusual, yet rich and smooth taste will send your senses to an exotic destination. Touches of fruit and wine are part of this gamy taste.

$10.50 lb.

Guatemalan Antigua - Distinct, full and spicy flavor with great aroma. Pleasant, snappy acidity, full bodied and rich in flavor.

$10.50 lb.

Java Estate - Low-toned and rich, lighter in body, with a quick finish.

$10.00 lb.

Kenya AA - Distinctive and bold, with a white oak winy aftertaste - full bodied fragrant and rich. Our most popular varietal coffee.

$11.00 lb.

Papua New Guinea - Full and rich, this coffee has sweet and nutty tones with fullness.

$10.00 lb.

Sumatran Mandheling - With its heavy body, syrupy and chocolate tastes, you will not be disappointed!

$11.00 lb.

Tanzanian Peaberry - Our peaberries come from the Mt. Kilimanjaro region. Peaberries are two halves of a coffee bean grown as one, making it twice as fun! This blend is full, soft and has less acidity than Kenya AA.

10.50 lb.

Zimbabwe Coffee - Excellent body and vibrance. A clean East African coffee with a bold and balanced taste.

$10.50 lb.

We import only the highest grade, largest screen (16&17), most uniform bean coffee, and whenever possible, we purchase Fair Trade.

Fresh roasted coffee shipped within 24 hrs of the roast!
